

SALZBURG SEMINAR
SALZBURG ACADEMY
PROGRAM ON MEDIA AND GLOBAL CHANGE

APPLICATION 2008****

Application Instructions

Please read the application instructions and the application thoroughly.

Please submit all materials at the same time. Make sure the relevant information is included and the application is completed in its entirety.

All documents should be submitted in English. The Salzburg Academy is conducted in English, and proficiency in spoken and written English is a prerequisite for admission to the Academy.

In addition to the application form below, the following materials must be submitted:

- Curriculum Vitae - Include your educational background, work background, languages spoken, additional skills, and any other relevant information.
- Personal Statement - A 300 - 400 word personal statement about yourself and your interest in the Salzburg Academy on Media and Global Change. Please include information on the benefits you hope to receive by taking the two courses (Media Literacy, and Global Cooperation, Global Change) that deal with media, international media systems, and global cooperation. Please also include any past international experiences that you have had, what you hope to pursue after your course of study is over, and how this experience will add to your future aspirations.
- Letter of recommendation - From a professor or other individual who can attest to your educational, professional, and personal qualifications.

Admission to the Salzburg Academy is on a rolling basis. Faculty directors from the Salzburg Seminar and the University of Maryland will decide to admit, waitlist, or not admit applicants in the order in which applications are received. Decisions will not be made on a daily basis. You will receive notification of the receipt of your application within 2 weeks of its submission. You will find out if you are admitted or not admitted to the Salzburg Academy by the end of March, 2008 at the latest.

If you have any questions regarding the Salzburg Academy, please contact David Goldman (dgoldman@salzburgglobal.org).

**Students attending colleges and universities in the United States should refer to the University of Maryland's website for instructions on how to apply through the University of Maryland.
